Do you have a well thought out effective model that will take your placement relationships with businesses to higher levels of partnership that will engage businesses so they become champions for your program? Do you know how to initiate an engagement conversation with businesses that have never used your services so they become your champions? Business champions can do an amazing array of things for your program!

- * Champions can donate money, computers and other things to your organization! They will market your services to other employers so you get more hires, internships, work experience opportunities, on-the-job training and apprenticeships with less effort on your part!
- * Champion relationships create seamless pathways from your program to jobs and careers for your program participants!
- * A champion can connect you with their business networks and associations so you can develop powerful sector strategies that work with multiple employers at the same time to open the doors of opportunity on a wide scale for your job seekers!
- * An engaged employer can provide mentoring for your program management and job seekers that will transform your outcomes!
- * Develop innovative joint projects with your business champions that can take your program to the cutting edge of workforce development!
- * Organize your champions into a dynamic Business Advisory Board that will take your organization to new levels of excellence!
- * Champions can be your advocates with policy makers, funders, the media, politicians and other influential players to put your program at the center of their agendas!

These are just a few of the benefits that can come with a well-designed business engagement strategy. This management consultation session will make it possible for you to get these benefits using a well-crafted plan that is customized to your organization and your goals for business engagement.

- * Learn how to position your organization from the first use of your services to go from placement, to becoming a partner and getting businesses to be your champion. Find out ways to approach businesses that have not used your services with a compelling case for engagement.
- * Get the tools you need to conduct an assessment of the engagement potential of each business so you do not waste your time trying to engage the wrong employer.
- * Find out how to make an engagement proposal that looks and feels like a private sector business plan so it appeals to the employer mindset. Find out from the candid feedback from employers why they accept some proposals and reject others so you can make your proposition a win win strategy that makes businesses want to engage with you!
- * Avoid the initial deadly problems that keep engagement plans from getting off the ground. Use fast and effective interventions if problem arise as your engagement plan moves forward so it stays on the pathway to success!
- * Discover how to use benchmarks and indicators that will tell you at each step of the process how well your engagement strategy is working.
- * Get examples of successful employer engagement initiatives so you can create a sequential plan to keep going to higher levels of engagement.

These proven engagement strategies will transform both your work and how the employer operates to take you to higher levels of partnership success with the private sector than you ever thought possible!
